		[KEY] I can use conjunctions, adverbs and prepositions to express time and cause in my writing.	I can write sentences which contain more than one clause, by using a wider range of conjunctions, such as when, if, because and although.	I can add prefixes to form new words, such as adding super-, anti- or auto- to words I already know.
	[KEY] I know when to use 'a' or 'an' depending on what the next word begins with.	[KEY] I understand how to use the present perfect form of verbs which contrast to the past tense in my writing.	I can use the grammar rules set out in my grammar list.	I know some words belong to word families (such as solve, solution, solver, dissolve, insoluble) and this helps me work out the meaning of all the words in the word family.
			[KEY] I know that inverted commas are used to open and close what some one is saying in a text.
